

EUROPEAN YOUTH WEEK

„Youth cooperation across the borders“

13th - 19th of July, 2015. Novi Sad, Serbia

Dear Friends, Kolping Youth members!

We are very happy and honored to share and invite you to the next Kolping Youth Week! This youth event will take place in Novi Sad, Serbia, between 13th and 19th of July, 2015. The topic of the Week is “Youth cooperation across the borders”.

About the Kolping Youth Week

KYW 2015. will cover the topics concerning youth cooperation across the borders, in particular, topics concerning cross border project cooperation.

The working part of the seminar is divided into two main parts:

- Lectures and experiences presented by prestigious guest speakers,
- Training sessions regarding project writing and project management.

Leisure time is also included: starting with famous intercultural evenings, we will also visit Petroland aquapark, beaches on the river Danube, town of Sremski Karlovci and Belgrade, the capital.

About Novi Sad

Novi Sad is the capital of Vojvodina, the north province of Serbia.

People also call it “Serbian Athens” because of its rich tradition and culture.

Novi Sad is seated on the left bank of the Danube river. On the opposite, right side, there is the central and the most known symbol of the town, Petrovaradin Fortress, which is one of the largest fortresses in the Europe and the place where the best major European music festival -EXIT- is being held.

The town of Sremski Karlovci, in close proximity of Novi Sad, is one of the most important historical centers, since it was the seat of Orthodox spirituality, cultural and political life of Serbian people living in the Habsburg monarchy.

Heart of Novi Sad is called the Old town and it is seated in the pedestrian zone. With beautiful architecture, colorful history, cheerful night life, many lovely squares, parks and cultural institutions, Novi Sad is a special place to visit.
